

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary is a base violation of the trust of public airways.

Were it not for the patronage system evident in the FCC and the State Department with the collusion of the current regime, we might have a fighting chance at a "public" airwave again.

Shame on the FCC and Michael Powell.